Associate in Arts and Sciences

BA in Creative Writing

Department of English

College of Arts, Letters, and Education (CALE)

- Why study English and Creative Writing?
  - At the heart of the English program is a passion for critically, creatively, and professionally understanding and using the English language. Creative writing students take workshops, literary studies classes, and theory courses in fiction, poetry, and creative nonfiction, all with an eye to developing their own voice and style.
- Scholarship Opportunities
  - The EWU English Department offers three scholarships per year to students achieving academic excellence in their major. For information on application requirements, visit www.ewu.edu/english.
- Room to Explore
  - This major allows room for a minor or elective courses as students strive for the 180 credits required to graduate. Complementary courses could include:
    - Journalism
    - History
    - Women's and Gender Studies
    - Race and Culture Studies
    - Philosophy
    - Visual Communication Design
