

Major Academic Plan (MAP)

Associate in Arts and Science
BAE in Visual Arts, Secondary Education
Art Department
College of Arts, Letters, and Education (CALE)

Why study Art?

Pursuing art as a major gives students the chance to develop the highest levels of artistic performance, pursue professional education, and build a cultural understanding and aesthetic appreciation of visual art.

Education Program

In addition to studying art and choosing a studio discipline, Art Education students complete the Secondary Education program, which leads to certification to teach grades preschool-12 in the State of Washington.

Some of the courses required by the Education program include:

- CMST 200
- ENGL 101 and 201
- MATH 107
- EDUC 201
- PSYC 304
- SPED 363

Studio Disciplines

- Digital Art/Photography
- Painting/Drawing/Printmaking
- Ceramics/Sculpture
