

Departmental permits are to be used for official University business to assist faculty or staff to perform their duties. They are not authorized for personal use or convenience. Staff members should not place a permit in their vehicle for their exclusive use.

How to Obtain

Essential to the operation of the department, the head of the department must formally request the permit in written form outlining how the permit will be used.